With the story quests, players can also play with the advanced system that enables a large number of combinations in the world. Let's take a look at the story quests one by one. [NPC] The NPC characters in the game are completely new. HEROIC THEME & INTIMIDATING MAIN CHARACTER This game is inspired by the tales of ancient history that touch on the fantasy genre, and has a 1st-class hero that is not completely invincible and not completely infallible. This game, which is somewhat difficult for beginners, is more suitable for lovers of high-difficulty RPG games. □This game supports both attack and defense, and does not lack in either element □This game has a fierce attack function called "Gold Strike," a function where the hero punches his opponent with excessive force Attack: Gold Strike Activate this function to use the attack magic of the main character or the accessory magic of the hero's partner. □This is a magic that does not use MP and is a combination of the same skill as the main character's attack magic and the main character's accessory magic. □When a skill is used, the icon appears on the display. □When the next skill is hit, the icon will be moved to the last position on the bottom row of the character's icon. □The number of times the attack is used is measured from the last time the button was pressed, and the one-time use of the attack will reduce by half. □When the attack uses its one-time use, it can be reactivated by continuously pressing the button, and it will then be restored to the full count. □The skill is recovered when a spell, special ability, weapon, or mount is used - If you use a spell, it becomes a "spell level 1." - If you use a weapon, it becomes a "weapon level 1." - If you use a mount, it becomes a "mount level 1." □If the number of times it was used reaches zero, it will be recovered, but it will not affect the attack magic or defense magic of the hero. □When the attack magic of the main character or the accessory magic of the hero's partner is used at the same time as the attack function of Gold Strike, the effect of this function can be suppressed. ATTACK MAGIC While you are in the battle, you can select which attack magic to use from the attack icon on the upper left of the display. □ Magic can be combined, depending on the spell level of the main character

Jeff McWaters (D-Md.), who had worked in the Senate since 2009, will take over the Washington-based agency that is tasked with enforcing the nation's campaign finance laws. Mary Rose Gage, a former aide to Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-Ky.), will serve as the FEC's vice chair, and they will take office on Dec. 1. "The current reforms, coupled with the relatively small size of the FEC, have contributed to the dysfunctionality in the commission," McWaters said in a statement to The Hill. "We need to put in place a set of rules and processes that reflect the reality of the 21st century political environment." ADVERTISEMENT The two appointees join former Commissioner Lee Goodman (R-Conn.) who resigned this summer amid accusations of harassment by staffers. McWaters, Gage and Goodman would have been required to face a bid for election to their posts, but due to term limits in the Senate and the vacancy, that won't be an issue for them. The Senate last week confirmed Gage to the FEC, a panel she had previously never worked for. She serves on the finance committee's oversight subcommittee, which has jurisdiction over the FEC. McConnell in a statement last week hailed the appointments. "I am pleased that the Senate has confirmed two outstanding public servants to the commission: Mary Rose Gage, a longtime senior aide to Leader McConnell, and Jeff McWaters, a highly respected member of my own finance staff in the Senate," he said. McWaters's experience in the Senate, however, will be different than Gage's. ADVERTISEMENT McConnell's aide worked as a staff attorney on the Senate rules committee, which is responsible for drafting the Senate's rules of debate and procedural matters. McWaters is expected to take over as rules committee staff director, but because of the committee's role in crafting the rules of debate,

Circumstantial evidence is a route to justice I'm inherently sceptical of police work, having been dragged up at police college in front of a cohort of half a dozen or so of very earnest enthusiastic law enforcement officers on several occasions, I've seen this type of job force before and it usually only leads to bad news. The fact that this isn't modern TV drama with a great big post box at the end of the episode shows just how bad it can get for officers overstepping the mark. Today we get the news that one officer has been arrested, charged and is currently standing trial along with a number of his colleagues,
